'LIFE, DEATH' CHOICE OF UNO

PEACE ASSEMBLY IS MEETING, "MANKIND AT STAKE," ATTLEE

PRIME MINISTER IS FIRST SPEAKER AT LONDON CONFERENCE

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

LONDON, Jan. 10—(AP)—The United Nations assembly, carrying forward the world's hopes for prevention of an atomic age war, came into being in battle-scarred London today and heard a bald warning that it holds in its hands the choice of "life or death" for mankind.

The warning came from Britain's Prime Minister Clement Attlee after Dr. Eduardo Zuleta of Colombia had called the delegates of the 51 United Nations to order at 4:03 p. m. (10:30 a. m.), Central Standard Time).

"It is for the peoples of the world, through their representatives, to make their choice between life and death," Attlee declared in his blunt speech.

Save World's Future

Dr. Zuleta, temporary president of the assembly, told the delegates that all must give their unqualified and unhesitating support "to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war."

The American delegation took seats long before the last of the delegates had entered the hall. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt sat

PHONE BELLS "SHALL NOT RING" AFTER 7 FRIDAY, UNION SAYS

NATIONWIDE STRIKE EXPECTED TO BEGIN IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—(AP)—A spokesman for the striking Western Electric Equipment Workers said today the union had submitted to the company a proposal which if accepted, might halt the strike and remove the threat of a nation-wide telephone tieup.

The spokesman was William D. Barry, President of Local 69 of the Association of Communications Equipment Workers. He did not disclose details of the proposal

About 3,000 operators, members of the Independent Washington Telephone traffic union, met in closed session from 11:30 until 12:45 after which their president, Mrs. Mary Gannon, told reporters:

"All the operators will meet back here again at 7 p. m. We intend to stay out until our grievance is settled. That's all I can say now."

Charge "Overwork."

The operators contend that supervisors are overworked, and there is too intense observation and too close supervision of operators by company officials. A company spokesman said the walkout came because it insisted that supervisors do the duties for which they were hired and added "no new duties have been added."

A conference between union and company officials, with Assistant Director Howard T. Colvin of the Federal Conciliation Service sitting in, was arranged for this afternoon.

Starts 10 a. m.

The operators started their walkout at 10 a. m.

Picketing To Start.

The walkout would be simultaneous with the establishment of picket lines around the American Telephone and Telegraph building at 32 Avenue of the Americas. The building, largest telephone office in the city, houses all long distance, trans-oceanic and ship-to-shore telephone communications.

Picketing by equipment workers in New York City will begin at 7 a. m. tomorrow, 24 hours earlier than previously expected, according to an announcement today by James C. Johnson, vice president of the union's local 96.

He said the change in strategy was due partly to "pressure from

TRUCE HALTS CHINA CIVIL WAR; CHIANG PROCLAIMS FREEDOM

"CEASE FIRE" ORDER ISSUED TODAY; BOTH SIDES STOP FIGHTS

By SPENCER MOOSA.

CHUNGKING, Jan. 10.—(AP)—An immediate truce in China's civil strife was announced at the opening session of China's unity conference today by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, who also told delegates his government would institute political freedom throughout the land.

The long-awaited cease firing orders were issued simultaneously by the government and the Communists. Gen. Chou En-Lai, the Communist negotiator, estimated it would take at least three days to reach all fronts.

American is Umpire.

Both sides selected leading military men to go to Peiping to serve with Walter Robertson, United States charge d'affaires, as a commission of three to see that the agreement was obeyed.

Chiang opened the political consultation conference with his double-barreled message of hope for peace in China. Only a few hours earlier delegates representing all shades of China's political thought were told that the truce negotiations had hit a snag.

Gen. George C. Marshall, special envoy to China, held an unscheduled conference with Gen. Chang Chun and Chou, the government and Communist negotiators, who then annouced the truce almost simultaneously with the opening of the unity conference.

Chiang Tells Meeting.

Chiang thus was able to go before the delegates with his announcement of at least a temporary peace, and he coupled this with an announcement that the government had decided to legalize all political parties.

He said the government would free all purely political prisoners, grant the people freedom of speech and promote local self government.

Chiang, opening the political consultation conference almost simultaneously with the conclusion of the cease fire agreement, announced the government had decided to:

REPORT RECOMMENDS 19 1-2 CENTS HOUR RAISE FOR WORKERS

FACT-FINDERS MAKE OFFICIAL REPORT TO PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—A presidential fact-finding board recommended today a general wage increase of 19 1-2 cents an hour for General Motors production workers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10—(AP)—The government fact-finding board in the General Motors wage dispute today delivered its report to the White House.

Chairman Lloyd Garrison and Milton J. Eisenhower, a member of the three-man panel, gave the document to presidential secretaries and did not confer with President Truman.

Not Made Public

Contents of the report, which may serve as a basis for settling a 50-day CIO strike in GM plants, were not made public immediately.

Chairman Lloyd K. Garrison declined to discuss with reporters the board's recommendations in advance of release by the White House. He would not say whether the panel was proposing any compromise in percentage form to meet the striking CIO-Auto Workers' demand for a 30 per cent wage boost.

Denies Reports

Asked specifically to comment on a report that the board would suggest a 20-cent hourly increase, amounting to approximately an 18 per cent wage hike, Garrison said only:

"That is not correct."

He would not elaborate. Some other reports placed the board's proposed settlement at 15 per cent, with provision for additional negotiation at the end of six months or a similar trial period.

Reuther cancelled resumption of wage negotiations, scheduled last Monday, presumably to wait for the panel's report and to assess its

EX-NURSERY EMPLOYE IS NEW SUSPECT IN CHICAGO KIDNAPING

JANITORS STILL IN CUSTODY BUT NOT CHARGED IN CASE

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—(AP)—A man once employed at a nursery within two blocks of the home of Suzanne Degnan, 6, kidnap-killing victim, was the object of a police search today.

Mrs. Margaret Perry, operator of the nursery home, told the police this man was discharged because of "questionable habits." Investigators also learned he formerly was a mental patient at Manteno state hospital.

Former Employes Studied.

Inquiry into the identity and background of former employes of the nursery came about when Mrs. Perry identified a ladder found in an alley at the rear of the Degnan home as one which had been left at the ursery two years ago by roofing company employes.

The police believe the fiendish kidnap-killer used the ladder to enter little Suzanne's bedroom early Monday when he took her from her bed, left a $20,000 ransom note, killed her and dismembered her body. The child's father, James E. Degnan, Chicago OPA official, told reporters however, he had seen the ladder in the same location the day before the crime.

Ex-Convict Sought.

Another man sought, the police disclosed, was an ex-convict with a record of sex offenses against young girls.

Although several clues collapsed during the last 24 hours, police still held for questioning today two janitors and hunted for a third they wanted to interrogate in connection with the kidnaping ad killing-dismemberment of the child.

Under a ruling by a criminal court judge at a habeas corpus hearing yesterday, the two janitors, both of whom underwent so-called "lie detector" tests last night, will be released today unless they are charged.

Chief Justice Harold G. Ward ordered the men retained by po-

EXTRA MEN ARE TO BE SENT HOME - IKE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The War Department undertook to recast its entire demobilization program today, as pressure mounted from disgruntled GI's demonstrating overseas.

Pending this revision, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower authorized theater commanders to waive all point score requirements in getting home men not needed in the occupation forces.

At the same time, Gen. Jacob L. Devers, chief of the army ground forces, told the country that public clamor for bringing the boys back immediately is "jeopardizing our security and wrecking the morale of men needed to maintain the peace."

Slowdown Week Old

The announcement the Army was redrafting its demobilization program came less than a week after the War Department ordered its demobilization slow-down which touched of fthe series of GI demonstrations in the Pacific and Europe.

Despite Eisenhower's order and the promise of a new demobilization program, increasing dissatisfaction with the entire situation was voiced on Capital Hill by some lawmakers returning for the opening session of congress next week. Senator George A. Wilson (R-Iowa)

DEMONSTRATIONS ARE CALLED NEAR MUTINY; SENATE PROBE URGED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—(AP)—GI demonstrations overseas against the demobilization slowdown were called "near mutiny" today by Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo), "distressing and humiliating to all Americans."

Johnson formally called upon the senate military committee to summon Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower "at the earliest possible moment" for a full investigation.

Johnson, a member of the committee, asked congress to take a hand in the situation after the war department disclosed it was undertaking to recast its entire demobilization program.

The increasing pressure from disgruntled GI's demonstrating overseas obviously was a factor affecting both the congressional and army approach to the problem.

"Can't Walk Off, Leave Europeans" Yank Troops Told

FRANKFURT, Jan. 10.—(AP)—High U. S. army staff officers tonight told representatives of 22,000 soldiers protesting delays in redeployment that "we have commitments in Europe and can not walk off and leave them."

These statements were made at a question and answer conference of 2 1-2 hours called by Maj. Gen. Harold P. Bull, theater chief of staff, acting for Gen Joseph T. McNarney, woh had gone to Berlin for the monthly four-power control council meeting.

Bull summoned more than 50 GIs from all of the army units attached to U. S. forces in Europe into the war room head quarters following last night's protest demonstration.

DISCHARGE PROTESTS BANNED FROM PAPER BY PACIFIC GENERAL

HONOLULU, Jan. 10—(AP)—The Honolulu edition of Stars and Stripes, Army newspaper, drew a stern warning today from the General who has upheld its outspoken policy as GI criticism of the demobolization program flared anew throughout the Pacific.

Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., commander of the mid-Pacific, cautioned Stars and Stripes not to make any discourteous references to the president, secretary of war, chief of staff or others in authority in the army. Although this immediately was termed military censorship by some here, it was pointed out that Richardson only was calling attention to the articles of war, which provide severe penalties for such criticism.

Gen. Eisenhower Urges Unity Of World For Peace

By HARRY T. MONTGOMERY.

OTTAWA, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, under whom the Western Allis combined their might to defeat Germany, appealed today for the same kind of unselfish international co-operation to maintain the peace and save the world from chaos.

Such co-operation, necessary to assure the success of the United Nations Organization, can be achieved only if every nation realizes that its "very survival" may be at stake, Eisenhower declared in a luncheon address broadcast to Canada and the United States.

"Nations that joined together to defeat ruthless enemies have even greater reason to remain united for the peaceful settlement of their differences lest new Hitlers rise to throw the world into a chaos more awful than the shattered countries of Europe present today," he said. TEXAS PHONES NOW WORK; OUT FRIDAY

There had not been any interruption of service at the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at 1 p. m. Thursday, and inquiries relative to anp likelihood of scheduled walk outs in sympathy with the nationwide situation were answered with the statement that no orders had been received or any action announced. This condition held for the operators and the maintenance departments. The operators union was reported to have voted Wednesday on the walk-out question, but the results are not available here. The maintenance department of the Corsicana district voted here Tuesday night to walk out if requested by the national officers, it was stated Wednesday.

(By The Associated Press.)

Texas marked time today with telephone service as usual but plans were being made for tomorrow's predicted shutdown of communications in many areas.

Members of the Association of Communication Equipment Workers union entered their second day of strike and repeated announcements they would picket telephone exchanges in major Texas cities tomorrow.

Southwestern Bell Telephone workers said they would not cross picket lines to go to work.

STEVENSON SAYS HE WILL SUBMIT NAMES IF SESSION VALID

AUSTIN, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson today denied the statement of Sen. J. Franklin Spears of San Antonio that Stevenson had not consulted him about appointments from his district, and said that he would send the names of his recess nominese to the senate quickly, if the supreme court should decided the current confirmation session is a valid one.

Stevenson said at his press conference that he had always asked Spears about prospective appointees from his district "when I could find him."

Three Regents Vetoed

"He vetoed three regents in a row and the result was San Antonio got no appointment to the board," Stevenson said.

During the press conference, Stevenson was in the process of naming a district judge to succeed the late J. D. Moore of Austin, and while the reporters were still seated in his office, he consulted Sen. James Stanford of Austin by telephone.

They agreed on Judge Charles C. Betts of the county court-at-law as new judge of the 53rd district court.

Stevenson also had these comments on the extraordinary senate session, which is standing at ease until Jan. 21:

Mind Not Changed

That he has not changed his mind about submitting a list of his recess appointees for confirmation.

That Sen. Weaver Moore's brief arguing the validity of the solo session was "skillfully prepared" but that it over-emphasized the impeachment analogy.

That if the governor should fail or refuse to send in the names of appointees at a valid session, the senate could make up its own list and act on them.

Spears made his statement that the governor had failed to consult him about prospective appointees from his district at yesterday's session of the senate.

Local Campaign Of "March Of Dimes" Will Open Monday

Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and Gov. Coke Stevenson will go to a little Texas town named Dime Box next Monday to open the annual March of Dimes.

Navarro County will coordinate the opening of its drive with this event, according to Paul Hudgins of Corsicana, campaign director.

The annual drive to secure funds to combat the dread disease poliomyelitis, will extend through January 31, the director said.

Distribution of 50 containers to be placed by cash registers in local business establishments will begin Saturday under the direction of Capt. W. W. Hogewood, officer in charge of the local United States Army recruiting station, who volunteered the service of his men for this task.

An additional 50 receptacles will be placed in stores throughout Navarro County.

GERMAN JEW-BAITER STREICHER FOUND TO BE SADIST, THIEF IN INVESTIGATION, WAR COURT TOLD

By JAMES F. KING.

NUERNBEHG, Germany, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Hermann Goering's own secret investigation of Julius Streicher in 1939 showed the notorious Nazi Jew baiter as a sadist and thief, according to a document introduced before the international military tribunal today.

Both men listened intently from opposite sides of the dock in the war crimes trials of 22 leading Nazis. They did not glance at each other.

Earlier, the judges heard in the words of another defendant, Hans Frank, how the Nazis hoped to make the Poles "slaves of the Greater German Empire."

Goering's investigation said:

Gauletier Streicher likes to beat people with a riding whip, but only if he is in company with several persons assisting him. Usually the beatings are carried out with sadistic brutality."

The report said that under Streicher's Ayranization program Jews were forced to sell their property at 10 per cent of its value. Goering's investigating commission charged that Streicher himself obtained control of a big Jewish-owned publishing house through a "forced sale."

In describing Streicher's sadistic nature, the report related a case in which he bloodily beat a Prof. Steinruck in a prison cell. Afterward, the report said, Streicher remarked to a colleague: "Now I am relieved. I needed that again."

EFFORTS TO SECURE IRON FURNACE FOR E. TEXAS RENEWED

By TEX EASLEY.

WASHINGTON, an. 10.—(AP)—Efforts will be renewed here Tuesday to arrange completion of the Rusk, Texas, iron ore furnace and chemical by-products plant.

East Texans backing the project will meet with Reconstruction Finance Corporation officials, hoping to break a deadlock that has held up construction for months after more than $1,500,000 has been spent. About the same amount is needed to complete the project.

Work was begun during the war by the Defense Plant Corporation. End of the war stopped construction.

Rep. Pickett (D-Texas) who arranged the conference, said those participating would include E. F. McCrossin, who would operate the plant, and R. B. Doremus, representative of the company in charge of construction. The RFC in previous conferences has indicated willingness to finance completion if sufficient evidence is shown that it will be continued in operation.

FREEDOM OF PRESS MAINTAINED IN FRANCE BY DE GAULLE; NEWS GOES ABROAD SANS CENSORSHIP

By DeWITT MACKENZIE
AP World Traveler.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—(AP)—One of the cardinal policies of the De Gaulle government is absolute freedom of the press, not only for publication in France but of news to be printed abroad.

There has been no censorship of any kind since V-J Day.

These are days when the world at large is engaging in a good deal of double talk—saying one thing and meaning another—but there is plenty of evidence to indicate that the French government means business when it talks of freedom of the press. Despite the shortage of news print, which has to be imported, any legitimate newspaper can be started.

Three Dozen Papers.

The result is that the capital now has three dozen newspapers, twice as many as before the war.

Paris can't support so many papers, and they are one-page affairs. Also a goodly number are political party organs and don't pay their way.

In order to prevent abuses of freedom of the press, the government is preparing a new press law—something France never had before. This will make it obligatory to disclose to the public the names of all those who are backing a newspaper, so that the complexion of the paper may be quite clear. The law, as projected, also will prevent the subsidizing of a

OPA To Fight Rising Food Prices

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10—(AP)—OPA Administrator Chester Bowles, flatly opposed to food price increases recommended by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson, has appealed for a slower removal of government subsidies.

Officials who know his views say the price boss has writtn to Stabilization Director John C. Collett asking that food subsidies be continued beyond dates tentatively set in a program drafted in November.

At that time Collett announced the government hoped to end by next June 30 virtually all such food payments. Purpose of the $1,785,000,000 a year war-born program is to keep retail prices from rising.

Anderson's recommendation for an 18-cent-a-pound butter price increase by next Spring met blunt OPA oppositon.

OPA also has fought quietly Anderson's proposal for higher meat prices.

Officials who asked that they not be named said Bowles takes the position that since food prices have not declined as expected and actually have risen in some instances, subsidies provide the only way to prevent a general increase in the cost of living.

Congressional approval would be needed to extend subsidies beyond next June.

Subsidies currently cover such commodities as meats, milk and other dairy products; flour and a number of canned foods.

A NATIONS'S PUNISHMENT

Probably most Americans have not yet realized how great and terrible has been the punishment inflicted on Germany for waging war against civilization. There have been many other wars in western and central Europe, but probably no others in modern history, or indeed in the history of any other first-lass military power, have been so devastating. In many areas the destructiton might be compared to that inflicted upon the Carthaginians by the Romans in the Punic Wars before the Christian era.

But there is this difference. Carthage was utterly destroyed, and has remained as a monument of punitive vengeance unto this day, but there is a reasonable prospect of German recovery. At best, however, the process is expected to take a long time, both for recovery and for retribution, with a settled purpose among the Allies of breeding the war lust out of the modern German nation and substituting for it penitence and cooperation.

BALL PLAYERS AT HOME

When a man has won years of fame from his occupation and been paid lavishly for it, he might be expected to take some interest in it even if he has retired. Yet former ballplayers seldom visit the park. Gordon Cobbledick, a columnist who still retains the interest in sports which gave him his newspaper start, remarked the other day about this curious phenomena. Larry Lajoie, one of baseball's all-time greats, was quoted as saying that he had not seen a game in 20 years. Babe Ruth goes rarely to games. Once in a while Cy Young who won more games than any other pitcher in history, comes up to see one from his Ohio farm. But generally former players, unless they continue their connection with the game as managers, coaches, scouts or radio announcers, put behind them the baseball chapter of their lives.

Why is this? Most players are rather rough and ready characters who would hadly be suspected of taking it to heart that their glamorous days were over. Have they just lost interest?

INCOME TAX DEFERRED

Letters from the Bureau of Internal Revenue are not often welcome. But many taxpayers felt more kindly to this stern taskmaster when, along with the December 15 bill for the unpaid balance of their 1945 tax, came an announcement that payment need not be made till January 15, 1946. While this change had been duly announced in the papers at the time, many Americans missed it or forgot about it.

The Bureau might legitimately have added "Merry Christmas." It would not have seemed discordant.

STYLISH PATRIOTISM

Some church denominations have the custom of tithing, whereby each member gives to the church a certain portion, usually ten per cent, of his income. That may have been in the mind of ex-Gov. Edison of New Jersey when he said recently, "Every man or woman should expect to give part of his or her time and energy to the public service." This is an idea that it would be very desirable to make fashionable.

ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Who is a better athlete, a golfer, a pitcher or a fullback? Or is a tennis player greater than any? The sports writers of the country have set themselves this hard problem by deciding, some years ago, to choose the No. 1 athlete of each year.

This year's winner is Byron Nelson, America's golfer supreme, named for the second year in succession. He is the first in his line of sport to win the honor since Gene Sarazen in 1932. Blanchard, the sensational Army fullback, was second, and Hal Newhouser, who pitched Detroit to the American League championship and victory in the world's series, came in third.

But how is it really possible to compare such widely different sports as golf and football, tennis and basketball? The problem is only a degree less hard than the old school debating question: "Who was greater, Napoleon or Shakespeare?" Such differing achievements can hardly be compared. What can be estimated, is the amount of publicity each got. This is probably what has determined the sports writers' choice.

LAWS TOO HARD TO GRASP

Everyone knows many laws are complicated. For this lawmakers are to blame, though they have not been in a hurry to acknowledge it. Now Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia says some current bills are too hard even fo congressmen.

This is hardly a startling conclusion. It would be more surprising if the present Congress, which takes the conservative stand on most public questions, were to do anything so radical as to make statutes understandable. But—

Why not start the New Year making all new laws clear?

A reader asks what the difference is, if any, between the journalistic words "publish" and "publicize," and on mature consideration we admit that we don't know.

"Ten - Nation Mission Leaves for Japan" says the news And there will probably be a bang-up job of missonary work done there.

President Truman is to be designated as "Man of the Year," but what we want to know is, who'll be Woman of the Year?

"Jerusalem, My Happy Home," as we used to sing, isn't so happy just now.

About 700 delegates held places on the assembly floo. and the gallery offered seats for another 1,000 reporters, photographers, guests and plain citizens.

Spaak Elected

Dr. Paul Henri Spaak, Socialist Foreign Minister of Belgium, who was supported by Britain, was elected President of the assembly for the London meeting. Tryve Lie, Norwegian Foreign Minister, was the only candidate nominated from the floor. Lie's name was offered by Russia, who with the United States, supported him On a secret ballot, the tally was Spaak, Lie 23.

"The coming of the atomic bomb was only the last of a series of warnings to mankind that, unless the powers of destruction could be controlled, immense ruin and almost annihilation would be the lot of most of the highly civilized portions of mankind," the British leader told the representatives of 51 nations assembled at ancient Westminster Palace.

Attlee said, "I welcome, therefore, the decision to remit the whole problem of control of atomic energy to a commission of the United Nations Organization."

This decision was made at the pre-Christmas conference of the Big Three foreign ministers in Moscow. It calls for setting up an 11-man commission.

But already King George VI had set the solemn tone of the session in a speech to the chief delegates at a glittering state dinner at St. James Palace last night.

"It is in your hands,' he said, "to make or mar the happiness of millions of your fellow men, and of millions yet unborn.

"It is for you to lay the foundations of a new world, where such a conflict as that which lately brought our world to the verge of annihilation must never be repeated."

Preliminary estimates were that organizing might be completed in from three to four weeks. The assembly would then adjourn to re-assemble later this year at permanent UNO headquarters in the United States.

Atomic energy controls furnished the chief pre-conference excitement here when Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the American delegation questioned whether the commission would have powers so broad that it might demand atomic bomb secrets from the United States.

Byrnes issued a statement de.aying this and Vandenberg said he was completely reassured that the secrets would be adequately safeguarded.

Hanrahan told Judge Ward: "In 24 hours we will know the answer."

The immediate release of the two janitors, Hector Verburgh, 65, and Desere Smet, 35, and Verburgh's wife, Mary, 64, had been asked by their attorney, James A. Ricker.

The Chicago Tribune announced it would pay $10,000 for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the slayer. This brought to $21,000 the rewards offered.

Verburgh has been in custody since late Tuesday after police said they found bits of human flesh, internal organs and blood in a laundry tub drain in the basement of an apartment building he tends. His wife also was removed to detective headquarters while a few hours later police picked up Smet, who was described by police as Verburgh's close friend.

Both janitors have steadfastly protested their innocence throughout questioning. Hanrahan said the results of the "lie detector" tests for both men were inconclusive but an official interpretation of them would be given later. He said he had been advised Smet had "passed" except for one question relating to a key.

if no agreement is reached with McCrossin, the development be turned over to the Surplus Property Administration. The SPA then would negotiate with other private interests.

Rusk is center of an iron industry which flourished in Texas during the Civil Wtr and in the latter part of the last century.

The revived industry would utilize timber in production of charcoal for furnace heating purposes. Chemical by-products in manufacturing charcoal would include acids and coal tars.

Prospects brightened for peacetime operation of the $25,000,000 Lone Star Steel Company iron ore furnaces in northern part of East Texas at Daingerfield, also built under the war emergency program.

Products from that plant would be used at a factory proposed in the Longview, Texas, area by R. G. Le Tourneau, Peoria, Ill., maker of heavy dirt moving and road building machinery. Le Tourneau has agreed to build and operate the manufacturing plant if the Surplus Property Administration agrees to sell the army's Harmon General Hospital at Longview to the Le Tourneau Foundation for a trade school.

Eisenhower, army chief of staff, authorized theater commanders, pending issuance of the new demobilization program, to return home all surplus personnel regardless of their point scores.

In a letter to Chairman Thomas of the senate military committee, Johnson declared that "no American army must ever be permitted by congress to degenerate into a mob. What must our neighbor nations think of such an outrageous display of irresponsibility?"

Johnson also asserted that the war department was repudiating "solemn pledges" about demobilization made to congress last September by Gen. George C. Marshall, then chief of staff.

affiliated groups to get our picket lines out fast."

17,000 May Quit.

In San Francisco, Western Electric workers were expected to begin picketing exchanges in the Bay area tomorrow. Union officials estimated that 17,000 communications workers in California and Nevada would be idle within a week.

Installation workers have announced they will picket telephone offices across the nation tomorrow and said they expected other union telephone workers would not cross the lines. Such action would paralyze long distance and manual telephone operations and the union said it would slow down dial telephone operations within a week to 10 days.

44 States Involved.

Eight thousand installation workers in 44 states were involved in yesterday's original telephone walkout.

The men, members of the Association of Communications Equipment Workers, install Western Electric equipment for the Bell Telephone System. They struck yesterday in a wage dispute, and by the end of the day 775 installation projects in every state but Montana, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont had been tied up, the Western Electric company said.

Picketing Planned.

Union leaders immediately announced picketing would begin tomorrow, adding they had assurance other telephone workers would honor the lines. But the Mountain States Federation of Telephone Workers declined yesterday to observe the picket lines. The federation represents virtually all employes of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Cimpany, operating in Colorado, Arizona, Idaho, New Mexico, Montana, Utah, Wyoming and El Paso, Texas.

In the event picket lines are honored by the National Federation of Telephone Workers, with its 263,000 members, and other telephone unions, switchboard positions would be left unmanned and other vital telephone functions impaired. Union leaders said, leading to a disruption of most of the country's telephone service.

17,000 Out.

The strike was the second within the Western Electric company in a week, some 17,000 manufacturing employes having walked out last Thursday in a wage dispute. Both the communications workers and the manufacturing employes are affiliated with the Telephone Federation.

The instaliation workers originally asked a weekly wage boost averaging $6, but later modifiel their demands.

U. S. Conciliator J. R. Mandlebaum following a long meeting with union and company representatives declared last night:

"Some slight progress was made toward effecting a settlement."

April Suggested Deadline

He told reporters he will propose that congress order the release by April 1 of all enlisted personnel except volunteers or draftees with less than a year's service.

General Devers voiced his concern about the demobilization picture last night in an address at Colorado Springs, Colo He said the job of occupation required "a large number of men."

The possibility of uprisings, due to food shortages, made this winter a critical time in both Europe and the Pacific, he contended.

where damage was done to telephone lines and poles, crews rushed repair wor.

A local foreman said he could not say how long the crews would remain on the job in the face of the national telephone strike.

In Dallas a member of the ACEW said allowances were made for emergency work in the tornado area.

Votes Favor Strike

Telephone service has been restored in the Southview district, and linemen were working today in the Lively area southeast of Palestine.

More results began to trickle in on the vote being taken over Texas by Southwestern Bell workers on whether they would walk out in sympathy with Western Electric Employes Association members striking for higher wages.

Harlingen workers voted 41 to 1 to support WEEA, chairman F. M. Sexton said. Harlingen will respect picket lines.

Ruth Purl of McAllen said no action was taken there.

Sexton said he had been told San Benito and Brownsville operators also favored a sympathy strike.

Denison workers will follow action of the national union.

At Laredo, where 18 workers installing new equipment at the exchange walked out yesterday, service continued as usual and there was no sign of picketing.

Company management at Amarillo said it would handle emergency long distance calls if picketing starts tomorrow.

Paris Workers Meet

Traffic department employes will meet at Paris later today. A small crew of ACEW members was still at work in the telephone building today.

There were no developments in Dallas, where 100 ACEW members struck yesterday and where two Dallas telephone locals voted not to support the national sympathy strike. Clyde Stewart, Dallas manager for Bell, said the company would do all it could to pjrovide continued service.

Pfc. Tommy Roxburgh, who has been stationed at Truex Field, Madison, Wis., spent a week in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Roxburgh and has gone to Houston to visit his mother. Pfc. Roxburgh has re-enlisted and will report to Greensboro, N. C. on January 12th for overseas service.

Press Freedom Necessary.

For five years under the German rule there was no freedom of speech or publication. The country was told what the Hitlerites thought it ought to know.

Towards the end of this occupation, a French newspaper got hold of a statement by Kent Cooper, executive director of the Associated Press, advocating freedom of the press as an essential of world peace. He maintained that peace depends on real acquaintance among the peoples of the earth, and that this acquaintance can come only through a free exchange of all the news.

That wasn't the first time Mr. Cooper had put forward this thesis. It was part of a crusade he has been waging since the last war, when he tried to get the idea incorporated in the peace treaty, just as he now is trying to secure recognition in the peace treaties which are to be signed.

possible effect on that union's and the corporation's position in bargaining.

Both sides seemed to agree that the board's findings would at least serve as the foundation for wage talks. The union's 175,000 members in GM plants left their jobs November 21.

Officials spotlighted attention on the report of the president's other fact-finding panel—appointed to investigate the CIO-Auto Workers' demand for a 30 per cent wage increase from General Motors.

The three-man panel struggled to place its report and recommendations on Mr. Truman's desk today, 50th day of the motor shutdown. Whether the document would be made public immediately was not clear.

General Motors offered the 175,000 striking auto workers an increase of 13 1-2 per cent.

CIO representatives here acknowledged that any solutions reached in the U. S. Steel or General Motors dispute would have a direct bearing on at least two other CIO wage struggles. These involve the threatened strike of 200,000 United Electrical Workers at General Motors, General Electric and Westinghouse Companies, set for January 15, and the AFL-CIO bid for higher pay for the nation's 500,000 shipyard workers.

Conferences on wage increases for shipbuilding workers were recessed last week until January 14.

COUNTY DELEGATES ATTEND MID-WINTER SCHOOL CONFERENCE

A delegation of Navarro county educators attended the recent Thirteenth Annual Mid-Winter Conference of Texas school executives and teacher trainers held January 7-8-9, 1946 at the First Baptist church in Austin.

Attending from the county were J. C. Watson, superintendent of county schools, W. H. Norwood, superintendent of city schools, W. P. McCammon, president of city board of education, and superintendents from the following schools: W. V. Harrison, Frost, J. T. Black, Blooming Grove, J. L. Cox, Barry, E. C. Butler, Emhouse, and R. L. Waller, Dawson.

Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, is general chairman of the conference, which had a twofold purpose:

1. To consider ways and means of improving education for health and safety, vocational competency, resource-use, and character.

2. To consider and work out plans for securing desirable surplus property from the government, developing FM radio for education, extending and developing the summer plan of education, developing accredited counties, and developing more uniform means of awarding credit to veterans for educational experiences in the armed services.

Reports Made

Reports were made by Festus Pierce, military affairs committee chairman; W. P. McCammon, chairman of the entertainment committee, and A. F. Mitchell, highway committee chairman.

Mitchell revealed that negotiations are being made with the State Highway Department to widen the highway to the fair grounds to 40 feet, making it a four-lane road. There is a definite possibility that this will be done, he said.

J. M. Dyer, Jr., served as chairman of the nominating committee which presented the new slate of officers.

Holdover directors, with one year to serve, are Joe E. Butler, Sidney Britz, T. L. Carlisle, J. L. Collins, John R. Corley, J. M. Dyer, Jr., F. H. Harvey, Jr., N. Suttle Roberts, B. L. Sanders, W. C. Stroube and Joe Wolens.

James H. Neese Is Married To Dollie Moore, Fort Worth

The marriage of Miss Dollie Moore of Fort Worth to James H. Neese of Corsicana was solemnized at the parsonage of the Polytechnic Baptist church in Fort Worth Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Floyd Chaffin.

The bridegroom is a U. S. Coast Guardsman home on a 36-day leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Mattie L. Neese, and brother, Clyde O. Neese, 1523 West Third avenue.

Sgt. Taylor Wilkinson, who has been stationed at Glennan Hospital, Okmulgee, Okla., for the past two years and who was recently transferred to Fort Bliss, El Paso, is visiting his wife, his mother, Mrs. L. W. Wilkinson, and other relatives here.

BLOOMING GROVE VETERAN, BLIND FROM WAR INJURY, STUDYING LAW AT UNIVERSITY; LICKS HANDICAP

AUSTIN, Jan. 8.—(Spl.)—Among thirty-eight students from Navarro county at the University of Texas there is one who is going to school under most unusual circumstances. He is James C. Sewell, thirty-three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay L. Sewell of Blooming Grove.

Jim, bettre known as Bud at Blooming Grove, enlisted in the Navy back in 1942 and was serving as a chief motor machinist aboard the U.S.S. Hornet during a raid on Manila in December of 1944 when a Jap bomb hit this mighty carrier. The explosion cost Bud Sewell the sight of both his eyes and sent him to a Navy hospital where he was taught how to adjust himself to this handicap.

In November of last year Bud moved into a boarding house in Austin with a number of other boys and enrolled in the University of Texas as a sophomore student of pre-law. He realized that "sitting on a judge's bench would be more profitable than sitting on the bench in front of Tillman's store in Blooming Grove," so he decided to go to school despite his handicap. This wasn't an easy job by any means. The boys in the house had to take him to classes until he learned to find his way around (which he does exceptionally well now with the aid of a cane), and he has to rely on his memory to get what the professors say in class, and he has to have readers to help him study and prepare outside assignments. One of his very able readers is Mrs. Patty Harris Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harris of Corsicana. Patty says that Bud is becoming one of the best known figures on the campus because of his independent attitude and unwillingness to accept his position on the campus a being any different from that of any other student.

Bud's many friends give evidence to his friendliness and fine attitude completely absent of any feeling of misfortune or subjection. The outstanding grades that he is making support his inmpression of school here as being like "shooting fish in a rain barrel." His greatest interest on the campus of the University is his association with other people, and he has demonstrated this by his activity in the campus post of the American Legion, the Ex-Servicemen's Association, and the Pre-Law Society.

SALARIES AND BOND APPROVED MONDAY BY COMMISSIONERS

Approval of the salaries of assistant county attorneys and the bond of another county official featured a special meeting of the commissioners court Monday afternoon. All members except Commissioner Fred M. Copeland of Pursley were present. He was absent because of a trip to South Texas.

The salaries of W. D. Ralston and Mrs. Ethel Hook at $250 and $125 per month, respectively, were approved. The bond of Wm. V. Mowlam, county surveyor, in the sum of $1,000 was approved.

The commissioners discussed farm-to-market right-of-way questions likely to be encountered later, but no action was taken.

Mary Anthem Baker Becomes Bride Of Fred H. Marberry

Miss Mary Anthem Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Baker of Streetman, was married to Fred H. Marberry of Kirvin January 6 at the Baptist parsonage in Streetman, with Rev. M. O. Southerland officiating.

The bride wore an aqua suit with brown accessories. Among those attending the ceremony were Miss Nova Marberry, the bridegroom's sister, Marion Baker, the bride's brother, and Mac Baker—her uncle. After the ceremony, the couple left on a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Marberry formerly was employed at the AAA office in Fairfield. The bridegroom recently received his discharge after serving three years in the Army Air Forces. He was graduated from Kirvin High School and she from Streetman High School.

Former Corsicana Pastor Observes 15th Anniversary

Rev. Albert W. Luper, who left the Eleventh Avenue Baptist Church of this city in January, 1932, to become pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oak Cliff, Dallas, celebrated the beginning of his fifteenth year of the pastorate on Sunday afternoon, when the church entertained with a reception from 3 to 5 o'clock P. M. in the church annex.

Rev. Luper became a member of the church in 1910, while studying in Texas Baptist University, and Metropolitan Business College, where he met his wife, the former Fannie May Hawkins. They were married in 1911 by Rev. S. S. Bussell, and Rev. Luper was ordained to the ministry that year.

In 1920, he and Mrs. Luper went as foreign missionaries to Brazil. Later, they went to Portugal, and his missionary work lasted 10 years. Other pastorates before going to Oak Cliff Church include service in Ennis, Blooming Grove, Barry and Emhouse, in addition to his Corsicana pastorate.

4—Political prisoners, except traitors and those found to have committed definite acts injurious to the republic, would be released.

Communists Agree.

Gen. Chou En-Lai, No. 2 Communist leader, approved the four points and said they were basic for achieving constitutional government.

Gen. George Marshall, special U. S. envoy to China, broke the deadlock in Chinese negotiations for a truce last night by visiting Generalissimo Chiank Kai-Shek.

Differences over wording a cease hostilities order were ironed out.

"Cease Fire" Issued.

It was believed that Chiang agreed to modify his previous insistence that the Nationalists should occupy certain specified strategic areas in the inner Mongolian provinces of Chahar and Jehol.

The "cease fire" order was issued after Gen. Chang Chun, government reprseentative, and Gen. Chou En-Lai, of the Communists, meeting with General Marshall, special U. S. envoy to China, reached an agreement in the surprise meeting, held nine hours ahead of schedule.

Except for the transport of government troops into or within Manchuria to restore Chinese sovereignty, military commanders were ordered to halt all troop movements.

Announcement of the truce came as 38 delegates of China's various political factions gathered for today's opening of the Political Consultation Conference.

Chiang opened the conference with an announcement of the truce.

The generalissimo declared the government was ready to accept all decisions of the conference "if they are beneficial to national reconstruction, tend to promote popular welfare and can help in democratization of the country."

Stars and Stripes from news services.

In Tokyo, 20 members of the Pacific Stars and Stripes published there charged that it had been usurped in the "demobolization crisis" and converted into a "House organ for the war department."

Other developments:

Soldiers Cheer Ike

Manila—Thousands of soldiers whooped as they learned of General Eisenhower's authorization for theater commanders to send home any men deemed not necessary to occupation.

Seoul, Korea—Thousands of soldiers, at a mass meeting, vociferously but respectfully demanded a congressional inquiry of the demobolization slowdown.

Honolulu—Five members of a congressional committee studying Hawaii's application for statehood attended a mass meeting of 10,000 GI's who roared their approval of a demobolization speedup demand.

Meeting Warned

Richardson sent the same warning to the meeting's speakers as he had to Stars and Stripes: There must be no critical remarks about the president, secretary of war, chief of staff or anyone else in authority, under threat of arrest.

There was an outburst of laughter as the officer read "the secretary of war" in the mesage. Army newspaper reporters recently tripped up Secretary Patterson on some questions regarding demobolization.

To The Voters Of Precinct No. 4:

I take this method of announcing that I am a candidate for the office of commissioner, Precinct No. 4, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

In asking for youor vote I am doing so believing that I can be of real service to the people of this precinct, both in the building and maintaining the roads and in carefully directing the financial affairs of this part of the county.

The drainage ditches should be opened on all the roads of this precinct, and the grade rounded up. The mudholes should be filled up and the water stopped from running down the middle of the road. The rural route roads and the school bus roads should be kept open and well dragged at all times. These and many other things can be done for the people of this precinct, and it will be my aim to get these things done regularly and methodically. The work that has already been done to get feeder roads, north and south from Frost to Purdon and Blooming Grove, will be continued and no effort will be spared to get our people the best roads possible, with the funds that are available.

If these are some of the things the voters of this precinct want done, then give me your vote and support and we will work together toward that end. I hope to see each and every one of you personall.

J. N. (JOE) GEORGE.

Burglars Abandoned M'Kee Lumber Job

It just wasn't worth the effort, they decided.

Burglars attempting to saw the hinges off the safe in the McKee Lumber Co., office apparently gave up in disgust on the first hinge and stole away into the night. They left behind a hack saw and a partly sawed hinge.

Nothing was missing, although the drawers in the desk had been ransacked.

When The Going Gets Tough It's What You Can't See That Makes B. F. Goodrich Tires Last Longer

CAMERA CATCHES "DEATH DODGER" GIVING NEW PASSENGER TIRE TERRIFIC BEATING

Here's Jimmy Lynch, stunt driver, giving the new B. F. Goodrich tire the beating of its life. You can't see Jimmy, he's crouching too low, but you can see that hubcap sent flying by the jolting impact of the railroad ties.

What does it prove? It proves that the new synthetic tire will stand more punishment than car owners are ever likely to give it. In laboratory tests, too, it resists bruising better than pre-war tires.

Car owners are learning these facts about new B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns. Customers are learning about the 16,800,000 miles of road tests, about the new and better rubber, about the wider, flatter "RoadLevel" tread, about the stronger carcass. More and more of them want "the new synthetic tire that OUEWEARS PREWAR TIRES."

WORLD AWAITS A MOSES IN THIS TIME OF TERRIBLE TROUBLE*

Present World Crisis Calls For a Solution Like That Given Israelites in Egypt - - Our Lack of Leadership - - Guidance For a Nation

WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

Today's newspaper is just about the best commentary upon this Lesson. The outstanding news is "of nations in commotion". Problems are rampant everywhere. Little nations, long oppressed, have taken to armed struggle. Millions of displaced and homeless persons are crying aloud for food and shelter.

Oppressed peoples have been delivered from German and Japanese tyranny, only to find themselves like the Hebrews freed from Egypt, confronted by a new set of problems of safety and sustenance. This Winter's gravest world problem is how to feed the freed, and to provide them with clothes and shelter. Less spectacular than war waging, the present task, which every patriot should accept as his own, is equally difficult. The ominous spectacle of world revolution and the collapse of civilization lurks not too dimly in the background.

A Modest Man's Call

This whole story of Israel's four hundred years' sojourn in Egypt, and dramatic deliverance, climaxes in one man, Moses. Judged by every standard, he was one of the most influential personalities ever to appear on earth. He had been providentially saved from death as a babe, and thereafter trained in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. But he still was a loyal Hebrew and when he saw an Egyptian abusing one of his people, he smote him to death.

Whereupon he had to flee to the desert. For forty years this palace-trained patriot dwelt in "the great and terrible wilderness" of Sinai as a lowly shepherd. This, too, was part of his training.

On an unforgettable day Moses beheld a wonder—a bush burning without being consumed. Out of the bush came a Voice—the Call of Moses to return to Egypt to deliver his people. Modest, Moses protested his unfitness. He was yet to learn life's great lesson, that "God's commands are God's enablings." The simplest program for a successful life is always to say "yes" to God.

A Tale of Wonders

Man-fashion, Moses argued with God, whose patience is divine. As a concession to the slow speech of Moses, his brother Aaron was commissioned as a mouthpiece.

What followed is a familiar tale of wonders, too long to be summarized here. Each demand of Moses was refused by pharaoh, although accompanied by a punitive plague. The terrible tenth plague, the destruction of the first-born, had the same effect as the dropping of the atomic bomb upon Japan. The Hebrews were bidden to go.

Pharaoh surrendered, yet even so, as the Hebrews fled, they were pursued, and saved by the miracle of the Red Sea. But there were sore testings ahead of them: Israel had yet to be welded into a self-governing nation.

As It Is Today

Two close analogies between this old story and our present times suggest themselves. One is that civilization has had a great deliverance by the help of the God of Righteousness; but it does not know what to do with its victory. The other is the plight of the Jews, after worse oppressions than ever they suffered in Egypt.

Thanks to a great leader, Moses, the children of Israel, after four centuries of oppression in Egypt, were on their own. But they were not loyal to Moses or to Jehovah, and had to spend forty years of discipline in the bitter desert. For some five hundred years they were a nation whose graph is a series of violent ups and downs. Throughout the long centuries since, their history has been one of oppression and exile from the lands where they had established themselves. the survival of the Jewish people is one of the miracles of history.

Now Zionism has created a new issue that sorely troubles the world. Much blood will be shed before it is settled. Zionism has developed brilliant propagandists, but no Moses. Like Protestantism, the Jews are without a great and commanding spiritual leader in this day of destiny. Many of us think that only by the acceptance of Jesus Christ as Messiah will unity and world favor come to the Children of Israel.

There Is Guidance

Symbolized by the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, which led the wandering Israelites, is the profound and eternal truth of the guidance of God. Jehovah is not uninterested in His people. His patience is as everlasting as His mercy. Though we may be blind and stupid and heedless and ungrateful, He still leads us on, and ultimately works out His fatherly will.

Our day's most urgent call is for a great man to interpret the Divine will. A man of the spiritual proportions of Moses must arise to be God's mouthpiece in the modern world. Only such can lead our leaders. There is a call for great leadership on an international scale, and for like-minded men in every community and in every church, who will make us aware, in personal relationship, of the will of the Living God? As problems and perils close in upon us, we simply must have the guidance of the God of our fathers.

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMON

Religion is as necessary to reason as reason is to religion; the one cannot exist without the other.
—Washington.

On the whole, we must repeat the often repeated saying, that it is unworthy a religious man to view an irreligious one either with alarm or aversion; or with any other feeling than regret, and hope, and brotherly commiseration.
—Carlyle.

As the evening twilight fades away,
The sky is filled with stars,
Invisible by day.
—Longfellow.

For the bow cannot possibly stand always bent, nor can human nature or human frailty subsist without some lawful receration.
—Cervantes.

S S Lesson—For Jan 13th— ..... Galley 2— ....

I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord Jehovah is my strength.
—Isaiah 12:2.

And on his brest a bloodie cross he bore,
The dear remembrances of his dying Lord,
For whose sweet sake that glorious badge He wore.
—Spenser.

There are three modes of bearing the ills of life; by indifference, which is the most common; by philosophy, which is the most ostentatious; and by religion which is the most effectual.
—Colton.

Discharged Vets To Vote Without Poll Tax Payment

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 9—(AP)—A veteran who has an honorable discharge dated within 18 months of the next election and is willing to make an affadivit as to his age and residence, unquestionably has the right to vote without a poll tax receipt or certificate, and no election judge can legally keep him from it, Sen. George Moffett of Chillicothe, author of the constitutional amendment permitting ex-service men of World War II to vote without payment of a poll tax, said today.

"The language of the amendment adopted by the people last August is clear," Sen. Moffett said. "It provides that the person honorably discharged from the armed services within 18 months before an election is held in Texas need not pay nor hold a receipt for the payment of a poll tax in order to vote. He must, however, be a citizen of Texas, 21 years of age, and never been convicted of a felony."

VETERANS' PROBLEMS DISCUSSED AT NOON ROTARY CLUB LUNCH

A defense for the returned serviceman and his marital disturbances was voiced by Julius Jacobs, local attorney, who served in the Pacific with the 25th Division, when he addressed the Rotary Club luncheon at noon Wednesday in Navarro Hotel.

"The serviceman has built up in his mind a picture of an ideal home," he said. "He thinks he will return to a Utopia. But he finds this ideal situation is not there when he gets back. He is impatient and he is jittery. It will take him six months or more to settle down. It is up to his wife to be patient and understanding."

Jacobs described the vast amount of preparation necessary for the invasion of an island, told of personal experiences in the invasion of Luzon, and spoke a word of appreciation for the Chaplins' Corps and the American Red Cross.

Discussing the religion of an average serviceman, he said "We felt no more compunction in killing a Jap than a hunter feels in killing a deer. We felt no qualms of conscience when we hit one."

New members introduced were William B. Robinson and J. F. Hall Guests were Fred Marberry and W. D. Oglesby. Clifford Cate, president, announced that tickets would be on sale at the T. P. and L. for a local appearance of the Don Cossack Chorus.

BRYAN QUINT DEFEATS TIGERS OPENING TILT DISTRICT RACE 48-28

By GROVER HEIMAN
Sun Sports Staff

Corsicana Tigers bowed in defeat to a superior Bryan five 48-28 Tuesday night in the junior high school gym in the official opening of District 10-AA basketball play.

Bryan displayed a hustling, sharpshooting aggregation that took command of the game at the outset and were never seriously threatened by the local quintet.

Most of the Tiger scoring was accumulated from long tries, while Bryan worked the ball deep into Tiger territory before making a scoring effort. Bryan worked well on rebounds while the Tigers often neglected this essential.

Bill Flynn, Tiger forward, speared the local offense with 11 points to emerge high point man for the evening. Francis, Bryan forward, accounted for 10 tallies to spark the well rounded visitors to the convincing victory.

For County Treasurer

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of treasurer of Navarro county, subject to the action of the Democrttic primaries.

For the past 12 years I have been blind, but have continued my work and business with the aid of my wife, whose health is failing. I have been a resident of Corsicana for 23 years. This is the first time I have ever sought public office. Your vote will be appreciated as I want to be able to support my family despite handicaps.
